

2023 UUP Election Biography for ANDREW “ANDY” MORRIS

Andy Morris

For 22 years Andy Morris has served Binghamton University, as the Senior Associate Director of Enrollment Management & Recruitment for the College of Community & Public Affairs for the last 7 and as Associate Director of Undergraduate Admissions for 15. And a member of UUP chapters at UB and BU for 28 years. He serves as a delegate on the executive board of UUP as well as an elected representative in the Professional Staff Senate. Andy serves on the PSS Financial Impact Review Committee (FIRC), the BU Council Foundation Award Committee and the UUP Employee Review Committee. Andy holds a BA in Anthropology and Linguistics from SUNY Geneseo, an MS in Counseling Psychology and EdS in Student Personnel Services from the University at Albany. He has survived 38 years in higher education; 29 in enrollment management, marketing communications and admissions. He lives in Whitney Point, NY with his wife Peg. He has a daughter, two step-daughters and two cats. Andy loves historical aircraft, travel, the cinema, cooking and story-telling.